

Geography A level Curriculum

	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
Y12	Globalisation Process of Globalisation Impacts of globalisation on countries, people and cultures Key players controlling globalisation Tectonics What factors increase an area's vulnerability? Why do tectonic hazards become disasters? Management of hazards	Diverse Places How do population characteristics in the UK vary? How do different people view urban and rural landscapes Why are there tensions between social groups? How successfully are these problems managed? Coasts Processes affecting coastlines Rates of coastal erosion Sea level rise and its impacts Successful coastal management strategies	Fieldwork – UK residential trip NEA – Individual coursework write up
Y13	Super Powers Changing patterns of global power Emerging superpowers Global networking Players in key global decisions Contested places Hard & soft power (military & cultural) Water Cycle Global hydrological cycle Water balance and river regimes Global causes of water surpluses and deficits Water insecurity – consequences & management	Migration, Identity and Sovereignty Globalisation and migration Nation states and borders The role and importance of United Nations Role of Intergovernmental Organisations Concept & challenges of national identity Carbon Cycle Carbon cycle & sequestration Energy security – fossil fuels & alternatives Threats to water and carbon cycles Responding to climate change	Exam practice and revision sessions